LABOR SECTION BLOCKS PASSAGE OF RELIEF BILL

LEADERS CLAIM NEW CONFEREES MAY BE CHOSEN

Administration May Use Force To Break Deadlock

Washington, April 2.—(AP)—Administration leaders contemplated the use of force tonight to pry open the bitter labor amendment deadlock that confronted the hold captive $4,880,000 relief bill.

When a second meeting of senate and house conferees late today failed to strike out or modify the requirement that one-third of the $800,000,000 for loans and grants to states be paid directly for labor, Roosevelt leaders at once called a meeting of their own.

Present were Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the democratic leader, vice President Garner, the house democratic conferee, and Senator McCellar of Tennessee, a senate democratic conferee.

"Nothing was agreed upon," Robinson said afterward. "I am hoping they can reach an agreement tomorrow."

But it was indicated, nevertheless, that unless an agreement is reached soon, drastic steps to instruct the senate conferees to eliminate the controversial provision would be made. Either this or new senate conferees will be chosen. Leaders plainly were disturbed over the virtual exhaustion of "dole" funds.

Little immediate hope appeared for a quick agreement between the senate and house groups. In fact, the rift between apparently widened as Senator Glass (D-Va.) broke up their second meeting late in the day.

Obviously annoyed, Glass rushed out of his committee office where the conference was held, grabbed his hat and said:

"There's been no agreement."

Asked as to the next move, the little Virginian, his white hair rumpled and his face flushed, answered:

"I don't know; it won't come from me."

The meeting was adjourned subject to the call of the chairman, Glass. And despite Robinson's expression of hope for a quick agreement tomorrow, no meeting of the conferees had been called early tonight.

Probe Death Of World War Vet

San Diego, Calif., April 2.—(AP)—While civic organizations demanded reforms in methods of handling drunken persons, police today were conducting an investigation into the death of Walter P. Puckel, 38, Rockford, Ill., who died as a result of a fractured skull Sunday after being held in the city jail "drunk tank" for more than ten hours before he was given medical attention.

Officers said they thought Puckel had fallen on the sidewalk previous to his arrest.

In Puckel's clothing was found a membership card for the Walter R. Craig post of the 40 and 8, American Legion organization, of Rockford, Ill. Puckel had been staying at a downtown hotel.

Last Saturday night he was found lying in a downtown street in a semiconscious state, and police took him to jail.

An inquest is to be held tomorrow.

Senator Tydings, Democrat Opposes N. R. A. Extension

Washington, April 2.—(AP)—While criticism of the recovery administration piled up before the senate finance committee, another democratic senator, Tydings of Maryland, joined with those opposing extension of NRA.

Tydings demanded repeal of the NRA and the AAA, contending it was "a question whether the country was helped" by them.

"Isn't it time," he asked the senate, "to repeal these monstrosities and re-establish world trade, restore our currency and revive our own markets?"

As the lanky Marylander broadened his attack, and warned his party it could not run the government on "hot air," the recovery administration and the federal trade commission moved to investigate charges of anti-trust law violation by the rubber code authority.

Simultaneously the two agencies decided to call upon the code authority for explanation of charges that it sought to prevent competitive bidding on fire hose contracts in Milwaukee and other cities by advising the industry to disregard an executive order designed to provide competition.

ACTRESS WEDS

Yuma, Ariz., April 2.—(AP)—Melville A. Shauer, Paramount studio executive, and Rosita Moreno, screen actress, were married here today by Justice of the peace, all reportedly stolen by directors of the board.

Chicagoan Nabbed When Alarm Clock Rings In Pocket

Chicago, April 2.—(AP)—An alarm clock went off today in the pocket of Charles Coburn, 67, and was he embarrassed? A policeman heard it, mumbled something about never hearing an alarm go off in a man's pocket, searched Coburn and found not only the alarm clock, but four dead, the bodies of Joe Rehman, from a store. The aged man was locked up on a petit larceny charge.

GREECE FACED WITH SECOND REVOLUTION

Demands Are Heard For Restoration Of Monarchy

Athens, April 2.—(AP)—Public clamor against the government's clemency to convicted rebels had Grecian nerves at triggers edge tonight, with talk of another revolution and demands for restoration of the monarchy heard in some quarters.

Shouts of protest against Premier Panagiotis Tsaldaris' failure to mete out the death penalty to rebel officers went up from thousands of parading students who marched to the heavily guarded parliament building under the leadership of John Metaxas, who quit Tsaldaris' cabinet to protest its mildness toward the insurgents.

Elsewhere in the city other throngs of students cried "We want the monarchy restored!" "We want Metaxas for premier!" "Death to the Venizelists!" and "Down with Tsaldaris!"

It was reported that Tsaldaris' police chief of the department of criminal police who with 17 others was acquitted last week of charges of attempting the assassination of former Premier Eleutherios Venizelos, asserted ring leader of the recent revolt, had joined forces with Metaxas.

Whispers in Athens said Metaxas and Polychronopoulos, together with former Minister of Communications John Rallis, were plotting some sort of coup.

In this connection the Communist newspaper Rispotis said "Polychronopoulos, just released from prison for a crime everybody knows he committed, has placed his services at the disposal of Metaxas and the royalist gang."

Demands Repeal Of Both Recovery Act And The A. A. A.

STATE RELIEF FUNDS NEARING EXHAUSTION

Legislature Will Hear Report From Cherry Blossom Junket

By Milburn P. Akers
Springfield, Ill., April 2.—(AP)—With state relief funds again nearing exhaustion, the legislature will reassemble tomorrow after a two weeks recess and hear a report from the "cherry blossom" junket on the conversations had by the house committee with officials of the federal emergency relief administration in Washington last week.

The committee, headed by Benjamin Adamowski of Chicago, Democratic floor leader, will tell the house—the senate will not return for another week—that the FERA is insistent in its demand that Illinois provide $3,000,000 of the monthly $12,000,000 relief bill in the state. It will also report that the FERA is satisfied with the present set-up for relief administration in Illinois.

This report, together with the fact that the $9,000,000 appropriated by the assembly last January for relief will be exhausted by April 15, leaves the legislature, in the opinion of most observers, with little leeway.

An effort no doubt will be made to get another stop-gap appropriation, probably for $7,500,000, through the assembly before the April deadline.

This appropriation would take care of the state's share of the relief load until July 1, permitting the assembly to continue its argument over the relief set-up for several months with the hope of finding some solution which will satisfy both legislators and the FERA.

What will happen in the event that the assembly does not appropriate more money by April 15 is a matter of concern to legislative leaders.

In that contingency the FERA might, as it has done on previous occasions, carry the entire burden for awhile.

Italy Would Organize To Face Germany

Want Great Britain, France To Join Forces To Face German Rearmament

By the Associated Press
A demand that Great Britain, France and Italy join forces in the face of German rearmament was made in Premier Benito Mussolini's newspaper, Il Popolo D'Italia, yesterday as observers at Warsaw thought they saw Poland swinging back from Germany to France.

Belief that Polish sentiment is veering was based on reported progress Captain Anthony Eden, British traveling statesman, made in inducing Poland to accept some modified eastern security agreement and Poland's surprise decision to invite Pierre Laval, French foreign minister, to visit Warsaw when he goes to Moscow this month.

Another international conference on German rearmament was in progress at Copenhagen where foreign ministers of Denmark, Sweden and Norway gathered.

In Paris the French chamber of deputies adjourned until May 28 after hearing Premier Pierre-Etienne Flandin say France must keep her military strength at its utmost to oppose the newly armed Reich.

BUYS CABIN?

Estes Park, Colo., April 2.—(AP)—To be sure, yesterday was April first, but Mayor Frank Bond still was surprised when he scanned today a letter from a Chicago man indicating he had purchased a cabin and strip of property on nearby Long's Peak.

The Chicago man said he had been offered possession "as soon as the snow melts."

The Bowdlerfield shelter cabin, to which he referred, rests on a ledge where there is perpetual snow and the land belongs to the United States.

AVIATRIX WEDS

Harrison, N. Y., April 2.—(AP)—Faye Gillis, well-known woman aviator, and Selby Wells were married early today by Justice of the Peace E. A. Minter.

The couple drove from New York accompanied by Clyde Pangborn, the flier, and Miss Beth Bigelow, who acted as witnesses.

They were taken to the town hall where Justice of the Peace Minter performed the ceremony.

ACTION POSTPONED

Chicago, April 2.—(AP)—The attempt of Jesse L. Livermore, spectacular operator in stocks and grains, to win reinstatement on the Board of Trade was balked today at least for the time being. Action on his petition for reinstatement was indefinitely postponed by directors of the board.

CLAIM COUGHLIN, LONG, JOHNSON LEAD FASCISTS

Methodists Declare Three Are In Big Race

New York, April 2.—(AP)—Father Charles E. Coughlin and Senator Huey P. Long were described by the Methodist federation for social service tonight as being in a race, along with Gen. Hugh S. Johnson, "for the leadership of our developing fascism."

"The triangular contest in vituperation on the air between Johnson, Coughlin and Long was the preliminary try-out in the race," said a report prepared by the federation secretaries, the Rev. Dr. Harry F. Ward and Miss Winifred L. Chappell.

The report, described by the federation as an analysis of the programs of Senator Long and Father Coughlin, mentions General Johnson only link him, as an ally of President Roosevelt, in the contest.

"All three of these contestants for leadership of the unawakened masses," the report concludes, "are seeking to reform and maintain the system described by our general conference as 'unethical, unchristian and anti-social.'"

Drastic Wartime Income Tax Bill Is Made Public By The Senate Munitions Committee

By Preston L. Grover
Associated Press Staff Writer
Washington, April 2.—(AP)—A drastic income tax bill aimed at squeezing every last vestige of profit out of war, and backed by an industrial draft so rigid that it had the front lines as an alternative, was made public tonight by the senate munitions committee.

A Cardinal principle of the plan is "pay as you fight." It will be introduced next week after preliminary hearings are concluded.

Industrial war time earnings under the bill would be limited to three percent and those industrial leaders found unwilling to "cooperate in the war effort" could be told to go to the trenches instead.

But while the measure would press heaviest on persons who in the last war reported excessive earnings, it also would reach into the pockets of the smaller earner to make every individual help the cost of conflict while it goes on.

So assured was the committee of a friendly welcome by the country, that it predicted in a statement that "it will do more than any other proposal before congress to limit profiteering and to avoid the disastrous and possibly catastrophic results of another post-war inflation."

But the senate committee members' confidence did not deter the house leaders in their promotion of a rival plan. Arrangements were made to bring the McSwain bill out for a baptism of debate tomorrow in the house. That bill incorporates part of the proposals of Bernard M. Baruch, financier, who was chairman of the war industries board under President Wilson.

It was generally understood an effort would be made to amend the McSwain bill to attach to it some of the provisions carried in the committee plan drafted by John T. Flynn, economist and advisor of the group.

The senate committee's program opened with a statement which said: "It is hereby declared to be the intention of congress that no person subject to the jurisdiction of the United States shall profit in any manner whatsoever from the conduct of any war to which the United States is or may be a party."

Then followed the tax features. For industry, these provided:

- A 50 per cent tax on net profit on capital investment of six per cent or less.
- A 100 per cent tax on all net profit in excess of six per cent.
- For individuals it provided:
- A normal tax of six per cent on all earnings above exemptions.
- A surtax schedule which graduated up to a point where it took $2,800 of an income of $10,000.
- A 64 per cent surtax on all net earnings in excess of $10,000.

Exemptions likewise were trimmed far below those prevailing in the present tax law.

Unmarried persons would have an exemption of $500, instead of the $1,000 in the present law. Married persons would have an exemption of $1,000 instead of $2,500, an exemption of dependents would be cut from $400 in the present law to $100 in the proposed war law.

COMMITTEE TO OPEN HEARINGS ON DRIVER BILL

Must Have License To Drive Auto If New Law Adopted

Springfield, Ill., April 2.—(AP)—House committee hearings will be held tomorrow on bills to license drivers of motor vehicles and to provide for the permanent registration of voters.

The House judiciary committee will consider drivers' license bills by Representatives Edward P. O'Grady and Charles Weber, Chicago Democrats, while the committee on elections debates a permanent registration proposal by Representative Elmer Schnackenberg, Chicago Republican.

The O'Grady and Weber bills for drivers' licenses are practically identical.

No person would be permitted to drive a motor vehicle on the state's highways except those who had been licensed by the secretary of state. Exceptions are made for those who are residents of other states provided they are driving automobiles licensed elsewhere.

Licenses would not be issued to any person under 18 years of age except with the consent of parents or guardians and in no case to anyone less than 14. Licenses could not be issued to habitual drunkards, narcotic addicts or insane persons or to "any person afflicted with physical or mental disability" of such a nature as "to prevent the exercise of reasonable control of a motor vehicle."

Persons to whom licenses are issued would be required to pass tests as to eyesight, ability to read traffic signs and ability to drive an automobile.

Licenses, which could cost 50 cents, would be issued without examination to all who applied for them within three months after the act took effect. Thereafter examinations would be held.

A number of organizations throughout the state have been urging the passage of a drivers' license law, claiming it would aid in reducing the death and injury rate resulting from auto accidents.

May Reorganize Furniture Mart

Chicago, April 2.—(AP)—A petition for reorganization of the $15,000,000 American Furniture Mart under Section 77B of the federal bankruptcy act was filed today before Federal Judge William H. Holly by the American Furniture Mart Building Corp.

Lawrence H. Whiting, chairman and president of the corporation, said the action was that of "a solvent company seeking relief from difficulties precipitated by the depression."

He said the corporation had nearly $500,000 in cash and tax warrants with no outstanding bank loans nor merchandise or trade creditors.

Leaders Want Roosevelt To Cut Must List

Representative Kennedy Says Legislative Calendar is Overcrowded

Washington, April 2.—(AP)—A move to get President Roosevelt to withdraw much of the controversial legislation on his "must list" at this session and re-submit it at a special assembly in November today was started in congress.

It was initiated by representative Kennedy (D-N.Y.) who said he found much support among colleagues in view of the crowded legislative calendar.

"If Mr. Roosevelt insists upon congress enacting all the legislation he has proposed at this session," Kennedy said, he will be in session until August.

"Legislation in the hot months is not conducive to good legislation," he said. "Besides, such measures as the omnibus banking bill, the Rayburn utility holding company proposition, transportation, ship subsidy and similar legislation should have more study."

Kennedy is a member of the house banking committee considering the centralized banking bill advocated by the federal reserve board with the approval of Mr. Roosevelt.

CHICAGO MAYOR POLLS 738,498 VOTES OVER HIS TWO OPPONENTS

BITTER BATTLE SEEN ON SOCIAL SECURITY BILL

Both Republicans And Democrats Fail To Agree

By Clarence M. Wright
Associated Press Staff Writer
Washington, April 2.—(AP)—Advance signs of a bitter house battle next week over the social security bill appeared tonight after both democrats and republicans, in separate meetings, failed to agree on strategy plans concerning it.

The house ways and means committee today reached an agreement on the final form of the measure and plans were made to open house debate next week. Immediately after this word was spread through house corridors republicans were called into conference to determine their voting attitude. After a two hour session, however, no agreement was reached and further consideration was deferred until Thursday.

Democratic leaders, in a secret meeting of their own, had no better luck. They, too, talked for two hours about whether to bring the bill us under a "gag rule" forbidding amendments. And they, also, postponed until Friday a decision on that problem.

Further complicating the situation was the fast-spreading word that President Roosevelt had declined to accept personal responsibility for the present phraseology of the bill, approved today by the house ways and means committee.

Mr. Roosevelt's attitude, as outlined by that leader—who asked that his name not be used—was that he stood for only the broader phases of social insurance and would not endorse any particular bill and ask that it be passed without change.

Consequently, the highest democratic leaders forecast there would be trouble forcing the house to accept a "gag rule."

Milwaukeeans Are Fooled, Refuse To Pick Up "Wallet"

Milwaukee, April 2.—(AP)—All Fools' day has come and gone, and the countless Milwaukeeans who passed a downtown intersection wished today they hadn't been fooled while trying not to be.

On a sidewalk lay a bank book, with edges of green peeking from its covers.

The "wise" ones looked at it and passed by; all were sure that a string would slide it from their grasp as they bent for it. That was to be expected.

Less skeptical was Ernest Morris, executive secretary of the Milwaukee County Boy Scouts. Opening the book, Morris found nearly $2,500 in cash and checks. At the detective bureau where he left it, refusing a reward, he learned Miss Florence Brandt, secretary for the Widrig Motor company, had lost the book on the way to a bank several hours before.

REPUBLICANS ARE PLANNING 1936 CAMPAIGN

Midwest Partisans To Open Direct Fight On Roosevelt

By W. B. Ragsdale
Washington, April 2.—(AP)—Amid budding republican plans for 1936, word came from informed sources today that middle western partisans had been urged to pave the way for a direct campaign against President Roosevelt.

Instead of assailing him by indirectness, and denouncing "New Deal" works, as was done in the off-year campaigns of 1934, Republicans familiar with the plans for the middle western meeting said they hoped that from it would proceed a drive against the president, himself.

While they declined to be quoted, they said there was hope among them that the forthcoming meeting at Kansas City in May would blame the president, as the leader of the Democratic party, for what they said was the present woeful state of affairs.

One prominent Republican expressed himself in this manner: "We tried indirectness in the last campaign and got nowhere. If the Republicans are afraid to call the president by name in assailing New Deal tactics, the party might as well fold up now and not have a 1936 campaign."

A full program has been laid out for the Kansas City meeting.

They expected to assail roundly the Democrats on many counts, among them being the agricultural program; the deficit; the number of persons on relief; the growth of government bureaus which they said had put some 35,000,000 persons to subsisting either directly or indirectly on government funds; the so-called regimentation of industry, and the New York relief bill.

Hero Charged With Treason

Vienna, April 2.—(AP)—A one-time national hero stood before the war of justice today, charged with high treason, and all Austria watched with rapt interest a cross-play of testimony revealing the nation's political conflict reduced to personal terms.

The defendant, Alexander Efler, testified he had served his country for 32 months in the front line trenches during the World War, was wounded once and decorated for bravery seven times. He was a major in the Austrian army at that time.

As peace-time chief of staff of the Socialist Republic guards he was brought to court with 20 other Socialist leaders on charges of treason in connection with the Socialist rebellion of February, 1934. He pleaded not guilty.

The public prosecutor said the Republican guard had deliberately and systematically plotted civil war rather than submit meekly to their fate like the social democracies of Germany and Italy.

E. N. WOODRUFF IS CHOSEN AS PEORIA MAYOR

Mayor Leo W. Lenane Of Quincy Wins Re-Election

BULLETIN
Springfield, Ill., April 3.—Complete unofficial returns early this morning showed that Mayor John W. Kapp, polled 19,287 votes to defeat State Representative William J. Lawler for reelection in a spirited municipal election held Tuesday. Lawler polled 13,604 votes.

Willis J. Spaulding, polled 19,009 votes to win re-election. Other commissioners re-elected were Harry B. Luers who received 16,297 votes and Fred Van Horn, who received 14,995 votes.

Joseph M. Figueira, a former commissioner who was defeated four years ago, ran third in Tuesday's election and will replace Otto Caldwell, who is a member of the commission.

Spaulding is the only Democrat elected, altho the election was non-partisan.

Wilbur G. Voliva Is Defeated At Polls Tuesday

Last Of His Political Powers Removed When His Mayor is Defeated

Zion, Ill., April 2.—(AP)—Nero fiddled as Rome burned—and Wilbur Glenn Voliva watched a movie in his "White Dove" theater tonight as a count of ballots showed that the voters of Zion had wiped away the last of his political powers by defeating his candidate for mayor.

William N. Edwards, the peoples' independent candidate, was elected mayor of Zion over the Voliva choice, John N. Bales, by a vote of 1,759 to 1,407.

And to make the world seem flatter for the little man who has always insisted that it is really flat, his political opponents wrested every office from Voliva except that of township supervisor. B. C. Thompson, for 29 years holder of that office, was re-named as the only successful Voliva candidate.

The anti-Voliva group—Voliva insisted that they were "in league with the devil"—elected Stephen J. Drury police magistrate, John D. Thomas assistant supervisor, and Richard J. Hire, G. Oscar McDowell, William H. Farrer, and C. A. Brune as commissioners.

The overseer of Zion remained in his theater tonight, refusing any statement on the election. Results of the voting were not announced to an audience which packed the place.

Edwards received word of his victory at home, where he waited with his wife and family of six children. He promised, after taking office May 1, that he would enforce all ordinances, and make "plenty of changes."

For The Public Good

Whatever may be the political complexion of the administration elected
to govern this city during the next two years, there are some things it should do for the public good. The first and most important is the protection of the homes of this city
against burglary and vandalism. The number of house robberies has been steadily increasing for months. Vacant
homes of citizens away for the winter
have been burglarized and damaged.
Hundreds of dollars worth of property
has been taken or destroyed. Thus far not one person has been arrested and charged with any of these crimes.

Boys or men who seem to escape
identification have invaded homes
closed for the winter and have made
free with whatever they might find.
Whether or not these vandals actually stole anything is not known, but
thieves have systematically looted
many homes. It is suspected that professional burglars whose specialty is
raiding homes while people are away,
have been at work in this city for months. No arrests have been made.
The problem is one which the new administration should tackle vigorously
and without gloves.

Another matter which the new
officials will have to consider is the traffic situation. Time after time the press has called attention to the violation of traffic regulations, but little is done about it. Jacksonville continues to have a reputation for
free and easy disregard of traffic
laws. Violations include the running of boulevard stops, double parking and speeding.

In the business district the situation
is made worse by narrow streets, on
which there should be one-way traffic.
Parking on both sides of these streets
plus two-way traffic creates many a traffic jam that is dangerous. If there was one-way traffic, motorists
could still park on both sides, but
there would be no congestion.
Conditions here warrant the spending of more money on law enforcement. The police force should be increased to the number required, one
officer for every 1,000 population.
More adequate night patrols should be provided. The increase in the force
should include a full-time traffic officer who will hand out tickets to violators. Those who are caught violating traffic regulations should be fined and not let off with an admonition.

Fate of King Cotton

While the cotton crops of Brazil
have increased 68 percent, those of Egypt 22 percent and those of India
8 percent, the cotton crops of the United States have decreased 43 percent. With a half-billion-dollar world market at stake, cotton growers in this country have favored restrictions on
their crops and prefer to receive government benefits rather than grow
more cotton for the export trade.

The loss of the American cotton market abroad began during the civil war when northern warships blockaded southern ports. High tariffs in the intervening years have aided
other cotton-growing countries to gain
a market where the south once held
the exclusive rights.

Under present conditions this country cannot consume all the cotton it can produce. Prosperity of the cotton growers necessitates a foreign market, and instead of asking new restrictions on their production, they should be importuning the government to seek more favorable trade agreements with other countries to permit them to regain their foreign markets. Unless this is done, King Cotton is slated to abdicate his throne
and one of the principal farming enterprises of the nation will be ruined.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Page of Jerseyville recently celebrated their 64th wedding anniversary. For more than half a century Joe Page has been an editor and publisher and an outstanding citizen of Jersey county.

He has constantly worked for the up-
building of his community and has succeeded in making his county progressive in every way.

Mr. Page knew full well that a
"rolling stone gathers no moss." He "stayed put," and worked quietly in one locality. He has spent his life
devoted to the interest of the area
encompassed by the boundaries of
his county; yet so well has he succeeded that his name is known thru-
out this state.

Beside him all these years his wife
has worked faithfully. His interests
have been her own and she has helped to crown with success his long and useful life.

The Journal and Courier join with
the many friends of Mr. and Mrs.
Page in extending anniversary congratulations.

After the Little Fellows

The federal government continues its drive against the "hangers-on" of gangland. A Chicagoan who joined up with John Dillinger just before
that worthy was rubbed out is sentenced to life imprisonment; two girl
friends of Alvin Karpis and Harry Campbell draw five-year terms in Miami, Fla.; in San Francisco, persons accused of supplying the late
"Baby Face" Nelson with guns are brought to trial.

It needs to be emphasized that this kind of work is fully as important as
the task of cracking down on the ring leaders themselves. No criminal gang can exist in a vacuum. It has to have its small-try satellites—the
hangers-on who make its existence
easy and comfortable.

Such persons are really as dangerous to society as the big shots they serve. One of the most encouraging signs of the current anti-crime campaign is the fact that they are at last getting energetic attention.

So They Say

I find there is great spiritual activity in the United States. That, I believe, is the most hopeful sign for
the future.
—The Rev. Fr. Martin C. D'Arcy,
noted English philosopher.

More dangerous than was Dillinger,
perhaps, are those teachers and writers who are telling parents they must
never spank their children.
—Garry C. Myers, psychologist.

The movie industry must not only
be willing, but ready and able, to respond to the voice of public opinion.
There is no magic wand for better
picture production.
—Will H. Hays, motion picture "czar."

I am not interested in military training from the point of view of preparedness for war, but I am very much interested in it as a training in discipline, the most valuable thing a young man can get.
—Dr. E. M. Hopkins, Dartmouth
president.

To the Editor of The Journal-Courier:

Claremore, Okla., April 2—I tell you Oklahoma has got 'em all beat. Looking mighty good, good governor, good crops, cattle at good prices. Just flew in over Kansas. Say Kansas has got 'em a fine republican governor, that you are awful liable to hear a lot about for president. You know the republicans here lately have decided to put out a ticket. You know an awful lot of folks are predicting Roosevelt's downfall, not only predicting but praying. We are a funny people. We elect our presidents, be they republican or democrat, then go home and
start darning 'em to make good.

Concord-Arenzville
Hard Road Sought

Local Committee Joins in Conference with State
Engineer

R. E. Welch, T. M. Coyle, and William Casler and delegations of citizens
from Concord and Arenzville went to Springfield Tuesday to confer with Ernest Liebermann, state highway engineer, relative to a hard road between the two villages. The conference was scheduled for yesterday afternoon.

This road has long been contemplated. More than a year ago a gathering was held in Concord to boost for such a route. With its construction
this city and Arenzville would be connected with an all-weather road.
Local citizens are interested in helping these neighboring communities to secure this route. There is hope that the state will authorize the construction
this year.

Behind
The Scenes
In Washington

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
Journal and Courier Washington
Correspondent

Washington.—Secretary Wallace
hopes a kind Providence loves him
better than the politicians do. Otherwise, the AAA will be sunk.

Drouth conditions paralleling those
of last year would make good the assertions of those who insist the farm
program already has collapsed.
Even the administration would be tempted to join those who insisted the 1934 drouth was punishment for transgression of a divine law against crop
reduction.

Given a break by the weather, however, AAA probably will continue with no great change. Current political attacks from cotton states and popular
reaction against high food prices aren't
expected to grow strong enough to interfere.

AAA and processing taxes are the best answer to the farm problem the
administration has been able to think
of and the other programs suggested
are too radical for its present mood.

Wallace has a statistical hole ace
which he thinks will help stall off the cotton state senators, though he isn't talking about it. Cotton exports, to the accompaniment of loud wails, have fallen to 60 per cent of the previous
ten-year average.

But foreign consumption of American cotton has dropped to but 80 per cent, which indicates foreign buyers
purchased heavily when cotton was
cheap and have been using up large stores.

Export Rise Expected
Exports, according to this theory,
should be rising again by April or May.
Industrial exports have been only 66-2-3 per cent of the ten-year average.

Southern senators are seeking a high
government loan value on cotton,
abolition of the processing tax, and an export bounty. Present indications are
they won't get any of those things,
though the politicians may be able to
force a higher loan figure than Wallace would prefer.

Pressure last year caused it to be set
at 12 cents a pound instead of 10, as Wallace wanted. Other things being equal, the loan price will be set next August at about the market price as
the marketing year begins.

Japanese Goods Flood In
The 25 per cent production cut for
the cotton textile mills is a result of NRA's insistence on preserving the existence of certain high cost mills which would be forced out of business if the government laid no restraints on competition.

Contrary to what seems a widespread impression, it wasn't caused by a flood of Japanese imports. Nor is there any evidence that the processing
tax on cotton has been an important
contributory factor in the industry's position.

Increase in imports of Japanese goods has been startling enough. In fact, the National Industrial Recovery
Board had the jitters the other day
when it found that imports of Japanese bleached cotton cloth had leaped
and bounded from 3900 yards in January, 1934, to 2,633,000 in January, 1935,
and 4,346,000 in February.

But cotton cloth imports are still only about one-half of 1 per cent of domestic consumption. And Japan is the only country which has continued
to buy its normal quota of American
raw cotton.

Fear Farm Chiseling

Drouth in the corn belt where rainfall thus far has been normal, would be about the worst blow the AAA
could think of now, when the western

edge of the wheat belt is the chief
prospective sufferer.

Another cut of a billion bushels in
the corn crop would mean meat prices
so high that the theory of crop reduction probably couldn't stand the strain.

Current higher prices have also led AAA to fear secretly that it will be harder in the future to keep farmers
from "chiseling" on reduction contracts.

Combined with a relatively unrestricted city purchasing power, this might lead to a partial return of the surplus conditions existent when AAA started.

Wheat farmers, now that crop restrictions have been abandoned and
they are to receive benefit payments
for reductions they don't make, may
insist that the arrangement be continued—though they're signed up for
an anticipated reduction program next year.

The reason AAA continued to pay
them was that it had signed up with them for a three-year program.

Meanwhile, Wallace and his men
find some comfort in the belief that
meat prices aren't going much higher,
if any. Housewives are finding substitutes for meat, many people can't
buy it any more, and this is the season
of year when consumption is most likely to begin falling off in any case. The combination of factors tends to keep down prices.

Franklin Man Hurt
When Truck Plunges
From Slab to Ditch

Edgar Bood Badly Injured as Driver Ditches Car on Orleans Curve

Edgar Bood of Franklin was pain-
fully injured about 10 o'clock Tuesday
morning when a truck in which he was riding overturned at the curve in the hard road at Orleans. Roy Read,
also of Franklin, who was driving the
truck, escaped injury.

The truck was approaching the
curve when a car came off the dirt road near the Orleans elevator. To avoid a collision, Read turned the truck off the slab. It went into the ditch and overturned. It was practically demolished.

Bood was brought to Passavant hospital, where he was given medical attention. He received a large scalp
wound in the forehead and a deep wound in the right elbow. His condition is not considered critical.

CANDYMAKERS WILL HOLD CONVENTION

The fifty-second annual convention
of the National Confectioners' association will be held at the Palmer House, Chicago, the week of June 3-7.
An exposition of allied industries will
be held in connection with the convention.

It was in the old Palmer House that candy manufacturers held their first convention in April, 1884. The first convention lasted two days and enjoyed an attendance of sixty-six.

Ruth, have returned to their home
after a week end visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. George Day. Miss Ruth Day accompanied her home for a visit.

Thursday morning, April 11. This is one of the important features of the convention which will open on Wednesday, April 10 and continue through the 12.

Special projects presented by the state board members will be: "What
the National Congress of Parent-

Mrs. B. F. Langworthy, president of the National Congress; "What the

At the MacMurray Y.W.C.A. chapel service Tuesday Dr. C. B. Croxall of Warsaw, Ind., was the guest speaker. Dr. Croxall's daughter is enrolled as a sophomore at MacMurray College.

Dr. Croxall based his talk upon Alfred Noyes' book, "The Unknown God." He asked the audience to observe with him two of the principal events in the life of Jesus, "the birth and the death of Jesus." ## To Erect $125,000 Tuberculosis Unit At State Hospital

Contract for New 100-Bed Structure to Be Let Before June 30

Plans for construction of the first unit of a 200-bed tuberculosis hospital at the Jacksonville State Hospital are nearing completion, and the contract will be let sometime before June 30, so that work on the building can be started this summer.

This announcement followed the visit to the institution Monday of W. M. Horner and R. D. Henderson from the office of the state Division of Architecture and Engineering in Springfield. They looked over the site for the new building and conferred with the hospital management as to the plans.

The building will cost $125,000. It will be a one-story brick cottage and will be located west of the annex in what is now the institution garden north of the old root cellar. It will have accommodations for fifty male and fifty female patients and will be so constructed that another 100-bed unit may be added later. In addition to the bed space there will be serving rooms and quarters for physicians and nurses.

Erection of the new building will provide more employment in the city during the summer. It is not known whether some of the funds will be provided from the new public works appropriation by Congress or whether the cost will be met entirely from state appropriations.

Place—An attractive living-room.
Mrs. Tingle receives word from her old schoolmate that she is sending her boy, "The Blessed Boy" to spend a month with her family which consists of three boys, two girls, two aunts and the mother.

The boy's age is not mentioned in the letter, so it is supposed that he is very young. Arrangements are made for his coming, by having toys, such as trains, etc., ready for him to play with. A telegram is received stating that the "Blessed Boy" has missed his train, so will arrive later. The message is received by Tom Tingle, who decides to play a joke on the family by substituting Dennis Malone, the brother of the maid, Eileen. Then the fun begins, the boy turns out to be a "Rowdy."
Dennis' mother becomes so homesick for him that she comes for him and in that way the deception is revealed. Tom is sorry and is then forgiven. "The Blessed Boy," Edward Farrell Worthington, aged 16, arrived and is heartily welcomed.

Air Raid Scar Symbolizes Germany's 'New Freedom'

This gaping crater in a Berlin street is a memento of Germany's celebration of its freedom declaration in which 150 battle planes soared over the capital, dropping "cannon cracker" bombs on a city darkened for the demonstration. One bomb set fire to a building. The mock attack was thrillingly realistic and included a real gas attack on one section of Berlin by the first German military escape drill to take the air since the World War.

Mrs. P. W. Fox Back From Florida Finds Home Burglarized

Thieves Take Jewelry and Damage House; Boys Go Thru Kitchen Window

When Mrs. P. W. Fox, who has spent the past four months in Florida, returned Monday to her home, 729 West Douglas avenue, she found the house had been ransacked by thieves. Old gold jewelry, including a watch and ring which belonged to the late Mr. Fox, had been stolen. Many keepsakes of the family were missing. The thieves broke locks and wrecked doors in their efforts to find valuables.

Of all the jewelry in the house, Mrs. Fox said, one stick pin remains. The thieves dropped it on the floor. They gained entrance to the house thru a cellar window, and broke open the door leading from the cellar into the kitchen. They bored two holes in the door and broke the lock. The house was in a wreck when she arrived home, Mrs. Fox said. She regretted the loss of the family jewelry and the damage to her home and furnishings. "The next time I go away," she said, "I think I shall leave everything unlocked so they won't break up the place."

No clue to the identity of the thieves has been found as yet. A neighbor told Mrs. Fox that several days ago she saw some boys in the house, and that they were there a long time. The neighbor finally went to the Fox home, and the boys fled thru a kitchen window.

The burglars left a bunch of keys which they had evidently brought to aid them in opening doors and drawers. Mrs. Fox spent most of the winter at St. Petersburg, Fla.

Tablets of sunshine for growing children

Strenuous and snow keep children inside on many winter days. What sunshine they get is weak in the rays that produce vitamin D. No wonder youngsters lose their pep, become victims of winter ills.

It is tremendously important that your children get their share of vitamin D in winter. It prevents rickets, and builds strong bones and teeth. They also need vitamin A to resist infection.

For children especially, we suggest McKesson's Vitamin Concentrate Tablets of Cod Liver Oil. Children love their tempting taste. Each delicious chocolate-coated tablet brings all the vitamins in one teaspoonful of U. S. P. X. (revised 1934) Cod Liver Oil. And in addition it supplies calcium and phosphorus.

Give them to your children regularly—and note the results; fewer "colds" and greater resistance to other respiratory diseases, lustier appetites, more pep.

McKesson's Vitamin Concentrate Tablets of Cod Liver Oil are just as good for grown-ups. They help protect you against illness and add to your vitality.

Protect health the vitamin way. Take these tablets regularly. Give them to your children to help them grow sound bones and teeth. Buy them at any good drug store. A dollar bottle brings you 100 McKesson's Vitamin Concentrate Tablets.

Athletic Commission Tosses Heavyweight Championship Problem Into Lap of Garden

New York, April 2.—(AP)—The New York State Athletic Commission today tossed the heavyweight boxing championship problem back into Madison Square Garden's lap.

A week ago the commission took charge of the situation by designating James J. Braddock, the Jersey City veteran, the leading contender for the title and decreed that before Max Schmeling could meet champion Max Baer in this state, at least, he must first meet and defeat Braddock.

Today the commission ordered the Garden's matchmaker, James J. Johnston, to produce a signed contract for either a Braddock-Schmeling bout or a championship Baer-Braddock contest by April 16 at which time dates for important outdoor shows will be apportioned by the fathers.

"We're giving the Garden a break," chairman John J. Phelan said. "We could have made them put their cards on the table today. Now they have two weeks to either line up Schmeling for a trial against Braddock or produce a contract for a Baer-Braddock championship bout.

Joe Jacobs, Schmeling's manager, was reported to be in conference somewhere in the mid-west with Ancl Hoffman, Baer's pilot.

The commission notified Mike Jacobs, representing the 20th century sporting club, to produce the signed contracts for the announced lightweight title bout between champion Barney Ross and Lou Albory of Herkimer, N. Y. Jacobs already has filed the required papers for the Primo Carnera-Joe Louis heavyweight argument to be held in the Yankee stadium in June but the date for this and all other outdoor shows will not be allotted until two weeks hence.

The commission announced it had granted a license to Louis to box in this state.

Bob Jones and Gene Sarazen to Meet In Augusta Tourney; Invitations Bring Leaders

By ALAN GOULD

Augusta, Ga.—(AP)—Besides bringing together the finest field available for the climax of the winter circuit, with as much class and more color than a National Open championship, the Second Annual Augusta National Invitation Tournament revives a keen personal rivalry between the greatest two champions of American post-war golf—Gene Sarazen and Bob Jones.

They will match shots over the 72-hole route, starting Thursday, for the first time since 1930, the year Jones registered his famous "grand slam." Between 1922 and 1932 these two accounted for a total of 19 national championships.

Sarazen declined an invitation to compete in last spring's tournament here, which marked the return of the great Georgian to competition after a four-year layoff. To make sure he would not be tempted to change his mind or yield to persuasion, Sarazen left the country and toured Latin America by airplane.

This was accepted as fresh evidence of some feeling, if not an actual "feud" between Sarazen and Jones, growing out of several incidents calculated to irritate one or the other.

No doubt they were magnified but Gene did put the "blast" on Bob a year or so ago upon hearing the Georgian would return to competition.

If the National Open was awarded the Augusta course. The report proved untrue and Sarazen subsequently regretted his impulsiveness.

If there are any injured feelings left, however, they are not in evidence this spring. Time seems to have mellowed both former champions.

Like most observers, Sarazen figures Jones cannot overcome the handicap of long absence from hard competition, even though the Georgian still knows how to execute all the shots.

But for his erratic putting Jones would have been well up in last year's tournament here, won by Horton Smith, with Bob in a tie for 13th place.

This year's field of 60 players is stronger than the 1934 entry, which lacked Sarazen, Tommy Armour, Lawson Little, Jimmie Thomson and Olin Dutra, all now among those present.

Little, holder of both British and American amateur crowns, and Charley Yates, the intercollegiate champion, head a strong amateur contingent which may make the money-players hustle.

The veterans expect old man par-72 for the 6,700-yard layout—to take a bad beating. They say they won't be surprised if 280 is broken for 72 holes but they are always optimists until the firing begins.

E. N. WOODRUFF IS CHOSEN AS PEORIA MAYOR

Mayor Leo W. Lenane Of Quincy Wins Re-Election

Lenane, a brother of Representative Thomas Lenane, a majority of 395. Not since 1921 has a mayor of either party, or the party itself, held the chief municipal office two successive terms. Today's vote of 19,633 set a new record.

Unofficial returns from one-fourth of the precincts in East St. Louis gave Mayor James I. Crow a lead over John T. English. The vote from 20 of the 33 precincts gave the incumbent 3,772 votes and English 3,046.

At Zion Overseer Wilbur Glenn Voliva found the world becoming flatter and flatter as the anti-Voliva candidate for mayor, William N. Edwards, led John N. Bales by 735 to 546 votes. Political posters predicted that Bales' defeat would end the Voliva reign.

Republicans continued in control at Macomb, winning every city office except one aldermanic post which went to a Democrat. John R. Graves, a real estate dealer, was elected mayor over his Democratic opponent, F. M. Nevelon, by a vote of 2,760 to 1,718. His plurality of 1,042 was the largest given a Republican candidate for mayor in the last 10 years. The incumbent was not a candidate.

The Republican party retained control of the McDonough county board, seating most of its candidates.

At Freeport, James W. Nelson, a former mayor, was elected to that office over John G. Hayes. Both ran on non-partisan tickets.

Belleville's mayor, George A. Brechnitz, was leading by a margin of only 29 votes, with returns reported from 14 of the city's 29 precincts.

Complete returns gave Mayor Brechnitz 1,791 votes, George Remmsnyder (square deal party) 1,762; Herman E. Lorenz (citizens' party) 1,095; and Henry Frees (independent labor party) 25. The incumbent ran on the administration ticket.

William B. Moulton was reelected president of the northern village of Winnetka for his third year term. He headed an unopposed slate of candidates.

Democratic candidates were successful at Berwyn, where one of the few tests of strength between the major political parties was staged. Anton Janura, Democrat, defeated Maurice M. Shay, the Republican incumbent, by a narrow margin. Democratic candidates were named to the other municipal offices.

Republicans swept the town elections in Kankakee county, winning practically every office. The Democrats seated one assistant supervisor in the town of Herscher. The city of Kankakee holds its municipal election April 18.

In Evanston, Mayor Charles H. Bartlett was reelected over two opponents by a substantial majority, returns from 38 of the 53 precincts giving Mayor Bartlett 3,553 votes, Stanley Freiden 1,568 votes, and Harry L. Hagen 1,304 votes.

At suburban Glenview, Forest D. Siefkin, candidate for village president, headed a list of candidates who were elected without opposition. The one-ticket election attracted only 401 of the village's 3,500 registered voters.

At River Forest John L. Blink was elected village president without opposition.

At Peoria the voters returned a normal Republican majority to elect Edward N. Woodruff, 73, mayor of that city for his 19th term. He defeated Mayor Charles L. O'Brien, Democratic incumbent, by approximately 1,500 votes, incomplete returns showed.

Woodruff headed Peoria's government for seven straight terms, and later served two additional terms. At Aurora Mayor Conrad M. Baer, sixth won reelection over a field of six candidates, three of them former mayors. The incumbent held a lead of about 500 votes over his nearest opponent, ex-Mayor James Harley, Col. Charles Green and Charles Townsend, both ex-mayors, were also candidates.

Aurora, dropping the commission form of government, held its first aldermanic election in 14 years today, naming 14 aldermen. The election was non-partisan.

Alton, Ill., April 2.—(AP)—Thomas Butler, three times mayor of Alton, was elected for re-election today by Otto J. Hoffman. Unofficial returns gave him only seven of the city's 21 precincts with a total of 5,012 votes against Hoffman's 6,262.

WHITE BOX WIN

New York Yankees Expected to Finish Second With 1934 Champions Winding Up Third

BY ORLO ROBERTSON

Associated Press Sports Writer
New York.—(AP)—The Cleveland Indians, who last year failed to muster a single first place vote and only one for second, have been selected by the baseball experts to win the American League pennant in a wide-open race involving five of the eight clubs.

Although the Indians will be without the services of their ace shortstop, Bill Knickerbocker, at the start of the season, 25 of the 76 sports editors and writers participating in the ninth annual Associated Press pennant poll, selected Walter Johnson's outfit as the team to beat by the small margin of two votes over the New York Yankees.

The surprise of the balloting was the failure of the Detroit Tigers to run one, two, The 1934 champions, who were picked by only 13 writers and were favored to lose out the Boston Red Sox, who received 12 first place votes.

New Progressive Party Gets Off To Flying Start

Wisconsin Candidates Take Substantial Leads in Election

SCOUT LEADERS MEET

Chicago, April 2.—(AP)—Leaders of the Boy Scouts of America met here today to make plans for the 25th annual convention of the Scout Council scheduled for Chicago May 16 and 17. The convention is expected to attract about 1,500 Scout leaders. Among those attending today's meeting were Dr. George J. Fisher, New York, deputy chief Scout executive, and Walter W. Head, St. Louis, president of the council.

COURT CONVENES

Springfield, Ill., April 2.—(AP)—The Illinois Supreme Court convened its April term today with Chief Justice Norman L. Jones on the bench. Only 23 motions were heard at the opening session, the smallest number presented on the opening day for several terms, court attaches said.

THANKS VOTERS

I sincerely thank the voters of Road District No. 7, for their support at the election Tuesday.—John H. Ricks.

The three other votes to lead the league went to the Philadelphia Athletics.

The defending champions, who went through the 1934 season without a serious injury, also dominated the third-place balloting, receiving 25 votes as compared to 19 for the Indians, 15 for the Red Sox and 14 for the Yanks.

The Indians and Yankees were selected to finish no lower than fifth while the Tigers were considered a good bet for the first division, as only three writers picked them for as low as fourth place.

Methodists Declare Three Are In Big Race

port cited labor practices and records of the Priest and the senator against promises made to labor in their respectful social justice and share-the-wealth programs.

"Coughlin's office-workers," the report declared, "got less than a living wage. He put up his church buildings with non-union labor which he paid at a rate of 40 per cent below the union scale. He has his printing done in a non-union shop. The International Typographical Union and the Cleveland Federation of Labor have openly denounced him for his non-union policy. The A. F. of L. once appointed a committee to interview him on this matter. But he would not see the committee."

In discussing Senator Long's labor record, the analysis said: "Workers on the Louisiana construction jobs, to which he points with pride, have been paid as low as ten cents an hour."

Among Long's backers the report names Harvey C. Couch, power and railroad magnate, and Rudolph Hecht, New Orleans banker.

Father Coughlin's program in some points, was compared by the report to what were described as similar statements in the German Nazi article of faith.

Stock Shares
Give Ground

By Frank MacMillen,

Associated Press Financial Writer.

New York, April 2.—(AP)—A little out

of breath after yesterday's short up

spurt, shares gave ground in

trading on the New York Stock Exchange today.

Following Monday's session in the

spot-light, the rails drew backstage

surrendering the advantage gained on

temperate enthusiasm for the rate

compromise granted by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

News from the business front was

sober and threw little light on the market path just ahead. Sentiment

derived a dash of cheer from reports

of railroad loadings which indicated

fair gains on balance.

The report by President Thomas J.

Watson at the annual stockholders

meeting of International Business

Machines Corp. focused attention on one bright spot. Watson's statement

that a good increase over 1934 is expected for the corporation's business

this year was greeted with a rise of

2 1/2 points in the common shares.

The closing gong found equities

down 3 of a point at 36 1/2 in terms

of the Associated Press average of 60 stocks. Trading was somewhat more active at 532,388 shares compared with 444,590 shares on Monday.

Fractional losses ruled among leading industrial equities. Included in the list were U. S. Steel, down 1 at 28 1/2, American Smelting, down 1 at

33 1/2, Chrysler with a loss of 1 at 33 1/2

and International Harvester down 1 at 36 1/2.

Public notice is hereby given that

by virtue of a decretal order of said

Court, made and entered of record

on the 18th day of March, A. D. 1935,

in the above entitled cause, the said

Executor will, at the hour of 11

o'clock A. M. on Friday, the 12th day

the City of Jacksonville, County of

Morgan and State of Illinois, offer for sale and sell at public vendue to the highest and best bidder for cash to pay the debts of said estate, all the

interest which the said Owen P.

Thompson, Deceased, had at the time

of his death in and to the real estate

described as follows, to-wit:

Beginning at the North West

Corner of the intersection of College Avenue and Park Street in the City of Jacksonville, Illinois, thence running West along the North line of College Avenue One

piece of land, and thence South

Wheat Future
Prices Lower

By Franklin Mullin,

Associated Press Market Writer.

Chicago, April 2.—(AP)—Private crop

statisticians' estimates of domestic

winter wheat production that were

construed as bearish by many traders brought about a decline in wheat

futures prices today.

Opening higher, May later reversed

its early trend following announcement of the forecasts. The average of five experts' figures placed this year's winter wheat yield at about

490,000,000 bushels, or 85,000,000 more than production last year but 142,000,

000 less than the 10-year average.

Wheat closed 1/2 to 1/4 below yesterday's finish, May 94 1/4. Corn developed independent strength in connection with figures showing low

farm reserves and finished 1/4 off to 1/2

up, May 90 1/

re recommended by H. H. Alp, extension poultry specialist at the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois. However, the room temperature outside the hover should be about 70 degrees. Crowding of the chicks near the stove indicates too low a temperature, while their hovering at some distance indicates too much heat.

Obviously it is important to handle the chicks so that they will utilize high-priced feeds to the best advantage, but it is also necessary to protect the feed to prevent losses before feeding.

Dampness reduces the value of feeds and, in some cases, introduces sickness among the birds. A waterproof covering should be spread over the poultry feeds while they are being transported from one place to another in the rain, and they should be stored in a dry, clean room.

Poultry diseases are often spread by feed that has been stored in the chicken house or brooder. If a separate room is available for storage, Mr. Alp says that large-sized garbage cans with close fitting covers make good storage bins.

WITH COSTLY FEED
UNHEALTHY CHICKS
MEAN HIGHER LOSS

Urbana, Ill.—Dead or unhealthy chicks always mean financial losses for the poultryman, but they mean greater losses this spring when feed prices are high and the outlook for poultry raising is favorable.

One of the common causes of unhealthy chicks is the overheated brooder house. It often leads to death of chicks through cannibalism, and lowers the vigor and health of the birds. The effects of a hot, stuffy room will be reflected in unthrifty chicks with poor appetites and ruffled feathers.

A general hover temperature of between 90 and 100 degrees Fahrenheit

SPEND NO MORE THAN YOU TAKE IN, SAYS MEYER

Democratic Candidate in Fourth Ward Address Repeats Pledges

Henry G. Meyer, Democratic candidate for mayor, told a Fourth ward audience last night that he believes a city "should spend less money than it has, or takes in." He reiterated his pledge of economy that he made in the first speech of his campaign earlier in the week at a Third ward rally.

Addressing a large audience at the Washington school building, Mr. Meyer said that he has no criticism to offer in the direction of officials who have served before. "My sole idea will be," he said, "to improve on what has been done in the past. I believe that Jacksonville and its people want a business-like, efficient government. I intend to administer this kind of government if elected April 16."

Alderman Harlan A. Williamson, chairman of the meeting, declared that Jacksonville citizens should flock to Meyer with pledges of support, instead of Meyer having to come to them with a request for votes.

"Meyer inspires confidence." "He is the kind of a man who inspires confidence," Williamson said. "He has made a success of his own business. He has never sought office, and is now willing to devote his time to the interests of the city. People ought to be glad to give their support to such a man as Mr. Meyer. They should consider it a privilege to vote for him and elect him to an office of trust."

The meeting opened with the singing of "America," led by Mr. Williamson. Miss Rhoda Olds favored the audience with two vocal solos, "The Lord's Prayer" and "The Cuckoo Clock," with Miss Mahala McGee playing the accompaniment.

The Harmony Three, composed of Messrs. Miller, McQuitty and Bibbe, gave an original musical novelty in which the names of several candidates were introduced.

Presentation of candidates followed. City Clerk John Phillips, a candidate for reelection; Jewell E. Scott, candidate for city treasurer; Alderman Robert Weaver and Clinton Moore, the Fourth Ward aldermanic candidates, were introduced and spoke briefly.

Barnes Endorses Ticket

Judge James M. Barnes was introduced as one of the principal speakers of the evening. He stated his unqualified endorsement of Mr. Meyer and other candidates on the Democratic ticket. They are well qualified, he said, and have a sincerity of purpose that cannot be overlooked by the careful voter.

Judge Barnes declared that a city government is closer to the people than any other form of organization. "When you get up in the morning you brush your teeth and use city water," he said. "The water is then carried away in a system of city sewers. When you drive your car you pass over city pavements; when you walk it is upon sidewalks built under municipal jurisdiction."

"When you go on a picnic, it is to one of the parks maintained by the city. If you play golf, it probably is upon the municipal links. The city government is so closely identified with the life of the average individual that he is really a part of the city himself."

In view of this close association of the city government and life of the average citizen, it is the duty of the people to elect men who will serve the city efficiently and to the best interests of all. The Democratic party presents candidates of this kind—all of them deserve election."

Others who spoke during the rally were Mrs. Henry W. English, W. B. Rogers, Hayden Walker, John Dunn and John Clancy.

Dunn, a negro resident of the Fourth ward, declared that "Precinct No. 12 will go largely for Henry Meyer."

ORCHESTRA TO GIVE CONCERT

Last Number Of MacMurray Series to Be Presented Next Monday Night

The last number of the MacMurray College Artist Series will be given by the Little Philharmonic Orchestra in Music Hall on next Monday evening, April 3. The orchestra has been assembled from most of the musical countries of the world. However, racial and religious differences never occur under the spell of the baton, according to George Shapiro, musical director of the Little Philharmonic Orchestra which includes artists from Russia, Denmark, Norway, Holland, Austria, Czechoslovakia, Mexico, and the United States.

This is the first time that such a veritable "League of Nations" has been combined in one small orchestra. It took Mr. Shapiro more than a year's negotiation to form the orchestra, and now it leaves on a season's tour throughout the country after two years season at the Play House, Chicago.

George Shapiro, conductor of the Little Philharmonic orchestra, received his musical studies from such great masters as Hans Richter and Arthur Nikisch, the famous orchestra conductors. Mr. Shapiro has conducted in such European centers as Munich, Hamburg, Leipzig, Brussels, and all through England and Holland. In Holland he conducted the Mangeling Orchestra and in Brussels the Royal Opera House Orchestra. In London, Mr. Shapiro organized his own symphony orchestra of one hundred musicians which the critics greeted with lavish praise and encouragement. As the result of his orchestral activities in London he was appointed Associate Conductor on tour with Sir Henry Wood and Sir Landon Ronald of the Royal Albert Hall Orchestra.

As a composer, Mr. Shapiro has more than four hundred songs, numerous orchestral works, three comic operas, two ballets, and hundreds of orchestral and radio states of Europe and America. Mr. Shapiro's European concert appearances have taken him before the most discriminating audiences of Europe and America and while in Europe he appeared by royal command before various crowned heads, such as the Majesty Queen Alexandra of Great Britain.

LOCAL EDITOR TALKS ON NEWS AT SCOTT MEET

B. B. Ridgway Speaks to Scott County Federated Clubs At Library

Winchester, April 3.—"Publicity is invaluable to modern activities of all kinds," stated Birch B. Ridgway, of the Jacksonville Journal-Courier, in a talk upon "News Writing and Publicity" given at the Institute of the Scott County Federated clubs, held in the Public Library in Winchester, on Tuesday afternoon.

The meeting was opened by the president Mrs. Paul Vannier, of Bluffs, who introduced Mr. Ridgway as one whose personal knowledge, as editor of the Jacksonville afternoon paper, qualified him to present this interesting subject.

"When a group of business men, farmers, politicians or club women adopt a program and start to put it into effect, they invariably turn to the press for assistance. The newspapers are ready to help any worthy cause."

"A woman member of the group, be it a woman's organization or a men's society, usually closes the discussion with 'we'll see the editor about it. Often a committee is appointed to confer with the press. The editor is sought out and his help enlisted. The newspaper in any community is a valuable ally to organizations with constructive programs."

"Give the newspaper editor a few words of encouragement, and he will repay with friendly publicity for the club. A club that is in perfect accord with the community newspaper can function 50 per cent more efficiently."

"Newspaper reporting is a profession with certain ethics and limitations that may be compared to the legal profession and it should be the duty of club correspondents to conform to the suggestions of the editor."

Mr. Ridgway spoke of the form of club reports which should be observed. "Most newspapers readers read for information and are in a hurry about it. Therefore newspaper writing has developed into a matter of summarization."

"I believe that everyone should make it his business to become acquainted to some extent with the newspaper profession. Particularly club women who occasionally deal with the press should be versed in the fundamentals of getting out a newspaper. Perhaps you are, and have visited one or more newspaper plants and know the people who work there."

"The Journal-Courier in Jacksonville have a modern publishing plant of which we are proud. There is seldom a day that we do not have visitors who express interest in the equipment, from the automatic Associated Press printers which bring the world news to our office, to the large Duplex cylinder press and linotypes. The company has only recently installed a Ludlow typesetting machine. The Journal-Courier are glad at any time to receive individuals or groups and show them through the plant."

With apt descriptions and anecdotes the speaker illustrated his interesting remarks and upon request told of the Jacksonville reporter who trailed Colonel Lindberg through a Morgan county corn field. He brought to the audience the fact that the newspaper reflects the happenings of a community and the world in a manner which holds interest and fascinate.

During the Institute program, Mrs. Alva Stanforth, First-Vice president of the district presented the visiting district chairman and County presidents, who as part of the Institute work spoke upon the activities of the department. Mrs. Roy Davenport, of Alexander, County President of Morgan county told of the work in Morgan county and of the benefit of Institute meetings. She reported 29 clubs with 20 federated. Miss Dorothy Duncan, Jacksonville, District Chairman of American citizenship, gave suggestions for that department. Mrs. E. P. Brockhouse, Jacksonville, reported chairman of education reported cooperation in the clubs in planning study programs upon Institute work and legislation. Mrs. H. E. Conlee, Pres. of the Waverly Woman's club brought greetings; Mrs. J. Marshall Miller, Jacksonville, district chairman of Legislation told of the legislative measures of particular interest to the clubs; Mrs. M. S. Zachary, Jacksonville, district chairman of Civil Service asked the clubs to study the subject at their meetings; Mrs. A. B. Williamson, Jacksonville, district chairman of Park Ridge school told of the interest in the state for this work.

The Scholarship fund was explained by Mrs. A. W. Schimmel, of Pittsfield, past district president and she urged support of this in the various organizations; Mrs. Schimmel also told of the work done by the Better Films committee.

Miss Ware, health nurse from the State Health department, spoke upon the need of examinations of all "contacts" for Tuberculosis. She urged that the clubs cooperate in educational measures. Miss Ware spoke most encouragingly of the treatment and cure if there was adequate response in the counties.

During the program a group of songs was given by the sextette from the music and drama group of the Winchester club. The numbers were: "Believe Me if all Those Endearing Young Charms"—Moon; "Swing Low—Sweet Chariot"—Old Slave Song. The sextette included: Mrs. Warner Harper, Mrs. Allan McCullough, Mrs. Albert Coultas, Miss Nancy Louise Frost, Miss Belby Leach, Miss Lillian Collins.

Greene County Picks 2 Women For Justices

Whether Roodhouse heard about White Hall, or White Hall heard about Roodhouse probably will not be known for some time, but these two cities in Greene county tied for the honor of electing the first woman justice of the peace in the county, and according to Judge Walter Wright of Jacksonville, the first woman justice of peace in the state.

At White Hall, voters named Mrs. Geraldine Fraser, 27 years old, to serve in this capacity. She was elected by a two to one vote over her male rival, Edward Barnard, to fill a vacancy of two years.

At Roodhouse, voters gave Mrs. Mae Johnessee the justice of the peace office without opposition. Her name was written in on the ballot, leading White Hall to suspect that Roodhouse may have heard of the honor the White Hall voters were about to claim.

H. S. SENIORS WORK ON ANNUAL DRAMA

Final rehearsals are in progress for the annual high school Senior Class play, "Mrs. Bumpstead-Leigh," a well known comedy in three acts by Harry James Smith will be presented Friday evening in the school auditorium by the students of the Class of '35. This play was first brought to prominence by the famous actress Mrs. Minnie Maddern Fiske as she enacted it in the Lyceum Theatre of New York. Friday evening's production is being directed by Miss Frances Brown.

The story of this play is familiar to many theatre enthusiasts. Mrs. Bumpstead-Leigh, originally Della Sales of Indiana, won for herself an English rector after a strenuous season or two in Washington society. During this interlude the family name has been glorified, becoming DeSalle. Mrs. Bumpstead-Leigh's father has previously died, but her mother and younger sister Violet give themselves as much of an English air as nature will allow. To arrange the engagement of Violet to Anthony Rawson, Mrs. Bumpstead-Leigh invites herself, her mother, and sister to the Long Island home of the Rawsons where Violet promptly forgets the priggish Anthony for his attractive and straight-forward brother, Geoffrey. The climax of the play contains some startling disclosures and promises to hold the interest of the audience right through to the final curtain.

The members of the cast are experienced actors and actresses, all having appeared in previously successful high school plays and entertainments. The stage setting is being attractively arranged and the property committees have provided appropriate materials for the production. Costuming will be modern.

Miss Edna Osborne is Dean of the Senior Class.
